Mock Election Begins; First Lyceum Nov. 15

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER

ADALI STEVENSON

What 'To Do Till The Election Comes

Don't run to the nearest fire alarm or fight it out with your roommate. Go to your party campaign headquarters and pitch in and work. Campaigns aren't all promises and anyway if they are there is still a need for someone to get up and shout about it. You do just that. Volunteer for work in the campaign headquarters, offer to speak on a particular issue that you have convictions about, help rouse enthuslasm in your dormitory. ..do anything, but for goodness sake don't sit back and her everyone else have all the fun.

let everyone else have all the fun.
So You're 'en independent voter? D. K. thats fine with us, but just how do you independents el? 2. K. thats rine with us, but just how do you independents know whom you want to vote for? You browse around at both party headquarters and look in on the States Rights crowd, attend a few headquarters and look in on the States Rights crowd, attend a few rallies, work in one headquarters for awhile and absorb as much propagands as you can hold and then run right over to the other side and see how many of your ideas you can support or back down on. After all, you're the most important person in this election. Nationally and campus-wise its the independent voters who can swing the election. Realize your importance and make use of that good ol' potential vote. Everyone is going to cafer to you so take advantage of it.

Here we are with two weeks in which to get busy and find out vhat its all about before that VERY BIG DAY when we find out who will be pushing the National applecant for the next four years are up you're going to be out in the cool, cruel world and you'll be darned glad you knew what was going on way back there in the election of 1956.

Republican Committee

The Republican National Committee met on Oct. 16, 1956 to select their National Chairman for lect their National Chairman for the 1956-57 session. Miss Ann Dickman, a member of the senior class, was elected to this office and will head the Republican Party for the coming year. The National Committee is made up of the following Precinct Chairmen: Betty Lewis, Elaine Smith; Cornell, Leslie Harbold; Framar, Nancy Dillaman; Mason, Leslie Parks; Randolph, Ann Johnson; Town Girls, Irino Nano; Trench Hill, Sue Falconer; Tri-Unit, "Cookie" Cook; Virginia, Pete Lewis; Westmoreland, Cindy West; Willard, Stoney Carter.

How To Register

There will be a registration desk at a central location in your dormitory. A precinct chairman or party member will be there to watch you fill out registration card and sign it in her presence. The card must contain, in printing, your name, place and date of birth, current place of residence—your home town—age at time of your home town—age at time of registration, and your signature. No party preference is to be shown on this card.

Where To Vote

On Monday, November 5 there will be a central poll located in Lounge A of Ann Carter Lee. The polls will open at 8:30 a. m. and close at 8:30 p. m. The lecetion officials presiding there will be two judges and one clerk elected from the National Committee of each party. each party.

each party.

When going to vote you will first have one of the officials check the registration cards to be sure that you have registered and have not voted earlier. He will then hand you a ballot on which the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates from the Republican, Democratic and States Rights parties will be represented. You will take this ballot into a private booth, mark it and deposit it in the hallot box. t in the ballot box.

Then you can sit down and tell Then you can sit down and tell yourself that you have just been privileged to perform one of the most important duties which a person can have. . and it's because you are a citizen in a free America.

Democrat Committee

The Democratic National Committee Chairman will be announced at a later date. The Precinct Chairmen are as follows:

Ir. Awarded Trip

Patricia Ann Alvis, a junior at MWC, has been awarded an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress on her 4-H Garden Project, She has been enrolled in this garden project for ten years and has made a fine record. The Congress is scheduled for November 24 to 29 in Chicago, III.

Mock Election Campaign Begins

The Mock Election Campaign at Mary Washington opened with the beginning of student registration for voting. All precincts set up a schedule for registration which ended on Thursday, Oct. 25 at 7:00 p. m. Faculty registration was held in the various class buildings for one day only.

The major activity which was set up by the Mock Election Committee was a bi-partisan rally at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 23 in George Washington Auditorium. This was for members of any party and particularly for independents and those who had not yet made a final decision about their votes on November 5. For more devotes on November 5. For more de-tailed information on the speakers for both Democratic and Republi-can party, see Column 5 on this page. The major emphasis at the meeting was on the open floor discussion following the speeches at which time the students could question both speakers on any party issue.

Vote Republican

With election day less than a month away we must take time to critically evaluate the major platforms of both parties. We must decide which party will perpetuate the ideals of our American Democracy in the true American way. The Republican Party today represents this way. The basis of the Republican party are those ideals which truly exemplify a democratic and republican answer to the problems of the modern world.

which truly exemplify a democratical of republican answer to the problems of the modern world. The Elsenhower Administration has brought about the greatest prosperity the country has ever known, and without government controls, in fact, they have considerable lessened government controls. "Nearly three million people have moved into the middle income (5,000-10,000) bracket. There are one and one half million fewer in the under $5,000 bracket now than there were in 1952 under Truman. The work force has increased by three million persons during the last three years."

More and more thinking people are turning to the Republican Party. Are you one of these?

Democrats Do Not Like Themselves

"United we stand; divided we fall." There is no unity among the leaders of the Democratic Party. Truman has said Stevenson will be another "do-nothing" president if he is elected. (National Review, August 25, 1956) He said about Kefauver, before his nomination, "He may be nominated, and I might have to support him." (New York Times, July 6, 1956) Kefauver has said concerning Stevenson, "I has said concerning Stevenson, "I don't have one speech for New York and an entirely different speech for Florida, I won't hide what I mean behind eloquent phrases that have a fine sound but little substance. This is too serious a problem to be camou-flaged by the delicate shadings of graceful phraseology." (Baltimore riages by the delicate shadings of graceful phraseology." (Baltimore Sun, April 8, 1956) Stevenson has said of Kefauver that he neglected his duty in the Senate by being absent when votes were taken on at least seven important bills from 1948 to 1954. (Newsweek, April 18, 1956) Shell was been provided to 1954. 1948 to 1954. (Newsweek, April 16, 1956) Shall we let a party which is so divided rule our united nation? Shall we let a party in of-fice which will cover up things as they have covered up their hostilthey have covered up their hostin-ity among each other with a ven-eer of goodwill? The answer is no! Vote Republican!

Ike: The Honest Man

Adlai Stevenson says Ike states only "half the facts." Adlai always states the facts, half on each side of every issue. . Fletcher Knebel in the Washington Star.

Anyone who reads the papers or listens to the radio is aware of instead to the radio is aware of the facts and platforms of the two major political parties, but the most important factor is picking the man who will guide this coun try in the four approaching years.

The man himself must be taken into consideration: he must be ininto consideration: he must be in-telligent, capable, loyal, and above all, honest. If the man whom all Americans look to as a symbol of strength and integrity has not honesty ingrained in him, the United States will have no ex-ample to set at home or abroad. The American people need a man they can tust in any situation. The American people need a man they can trust in any situation. That man is Ike. The American people can respect Ike and all he stands for. Ike's policies included federal aid to schools, extended social security benefits, and higher wages. With Ike and Dick at the helm of the U.S. ship of state the country will be in water-tight condition.

How To Argue With A Republican;

Quick Answers to 14 GOP Claims

1. "THE GOP HAS BROUGHT THE GREATEST PROSPERITY IN HISTORY" GOP ARGUMENT: "Highest prosperity peaks in American history have been reached under the Eisenhower Administration"-1956
GOP Campaign Handbook.
THE ANSWER: Prosperity for big business, sure. But what about the rest of us-farmers, wage earners and small businessmen? The farmers are in real trouble, and wage earners and small businessmen aren't getting their fair share of this "record prosperity." Here are the facts about what has happened since 1952:
Corporations' "Take-Home Pay" UP 35%
General Motors UP 113%
Big Business Profits UP 45%
Stockholders' Income UP 24%
Stock Market Prices UP 56%
Average Person's "Take-Home Pay" UP ONLY 13%
Auto Workers' Wages UP ONLY 14%
Small Business Profits DOWN 13%
Farmers' Income DOWN 26%
Farm Prices DOWN 18%

"WORKERS ARE BETTER OFF UNDER THE GOP"

2. "WORKERS ARE BETTER OFF UNDER THE GOP" GOP ARGUMENT: "Under Mr. Truman, wage earners got 65 per cent of our total national income ... Under the Eisenhower Administration, the wage earners get 69 per cent of the total income."—GOP Chairman Hall, 5/1/56.
THE ANSWER: This percentage is meaningless. Just how meaningless is shown by the fact that in 1332—at the depth of the Depression—wage earners received 73 per cent of the national income—four per cent more than under Eisenhower.

Moreover, when the Republicans talk about "wage earners" they include corporation executives who make up to $700,000 a year.

The small increase in the take-home pay of the average worker with a family (8%) has been largely offset by increases in the cost of such necessities as rent (11%), gas and electricity (6%), household operations (7%), and medical care (9%).

operations (1%), and medical care (9%). 3. "GOP 'PROSPERITY' GOOD FOR SMALL BUSINESS GOP ARGUMENT: "... went UP 61%).
Small business investors' returns are DOWN 41% (while investors' returns on big business are UP 24%).
Small business failures are UP 25%.
In 1954, there were three times as many business mergers as occurred in 1949, one-third more than in 1953.

"GOP ACHIEVED WAR-TO-PEACE TRANSITION WITHOUT DEPRESSION"

DEPRESSION" "Under President Eisenhower . the country has passed from a war-time economy to a peace-time economy (without) a major dislocation (for the first time) in all recorded history."—
THE ANSWER: This is hardly a "peace-time" economy, with defense spending higher today than at the peak of the Korean fighting. (40.8 billion in 1955, compared with $37.3 billion in 1951.)

Moreover, after World War II, the Democrats succeeded in leading the U.S. through a much more drastic war-to-peace transition with less unemployment than we have today. Here are the facts:

PERIOD	DEFENSE	SPENDING	UNEMPLOYMENT
	DRC	P IN	AVERAGE
1945-47 (DEM	(OCRATIC)	$62.6 billion	2.1 million (1947)
1953-55 (REP	UBLICAN)	8.1 billion	2.7 million (1955)

"THE DEMOCRATS NEVER HAD PROSPERITY WITHOUT WAR"

GOP ARGUMENT: "... our New Deal friends ... were never able to provide prosperity except in wartime ..."—Vice President Nixon, 1/20/56.

THE ANSWER: This is not true—the facts show otherwise. In the real peacetime years of 1947 and 1948, for instance, the Democrats spent only about one-third as much on defense as the Republicans. Even so, unemployment was less than it is now, Here are the facts:

Defense Average Un-1955 40.7 billion 2.7 1947 $13.3 billion 2.1 million Year Spending emp		DEMOCE	RATS	REPUBLIC	ANS

6. "INFLATION HAS BEEN HALTED" COP ARGUMENT: "Inflation has been halted; the cost of living stabilized"—President Eisenhower, 1/5/56. THE ANSWER: Under the Eisenhower Administration, the cost of living hit the highest point in history (7/25/56). On many necessities of life, the increases have been especially sharp, costing consumers billions:

	% PRICE INC 1952 to 1955	REASE	ADDED CONSUME
	RENTGAS & ELECTRICITY	80%	 $2,196,000,0 537,000,0 ı	OTHER FUELS HOUSEHOLD OPERATION	5%	 383,000,0 4,416,000,0
ı	MEDICAL CARE	9%	 1,842,000,0

7. "GOP GAVE RECORD TAX CUTS"

GOP ARGUMENT: "... (GOP economies) made possible ... the largest tax cut in any year in our history. Almost $7.5 billion were released and every taxpayer in the country benefited."—President Elsenhower, 1/5/56.

leased and every taxpayer in the country benefited."—Fresident Eisenhower, 17.5/66.
THE ANSWER: Of the $7,4 billion in tax cuts that took effect in 1994, $6 billion was actually enacted by a Democratic Congress before the GOP took office. And in the $1.4 billion tax-cut bill the GOP did sponsor, the tax-relief dollar was distributed this way:

73 cents went to corporations.
18 cents went to families over $5,000.
GOP ARGUMENT: "Each taxpaying family has received an average tax cut of $100 per year. The tax burden is now fairer to millions."
—1936 GOP Campaign Handbook.
THE ANSWER: In 1955, under the GOP, the average U. S. family paid more Federal taxes (including excise and payroll taxes) than in 1952, under the Democrats (809 in 1955 compared with $794 in 1952).

"GOP LOWER FARM FRICES MEAN LOWER CONSUMER S... "GOP LOWER FARM FRICES MEAN LOWER CONSUMER." 8. "GOP LOWER FARM PRICES MEAN LOWER CONSUMER PRICES"
GOP ARGUMENT: "DIVISION OF THE PRICES"

5... "GOP LOWER FARM PRICES MEAN LOWER CONSUMER PRICES"

GOP ARGUMENT: "Miss Jane Todd, Vice President of the (New York) Republican State Committee, said last night that President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill protected city dwellers from paying higher prices on bread, milk, flour and other basic products."—New 742/56. 1956.
THE ANSWER: The school bill lost (by 30 votes) because 119 Republican Congressmen voted against it. Although the President publicly urged Congress to pass his foreign aid bill, "he did not send a single word to Congress" during the debate on the school bill in an effort to get GOP Congressmen to support it. New York Times. 7/8/36 gan was elected publicity chairman.

THE ANSWER: Under the Eisenhower Administration, more heads of more Government agencies have been involved in corruption than under any Administration since the GOP Administration of President Grant. Examples:

—The Air Force Secretary (Harold Talbott) openly admitted using Air Force stationery to solicit business for his own campany, from which he got $132,032 in profits in two years.

—The Eisenhower Administration admits that there has been a probable "conflict of interest" violation in the Dixon-Yates deal (which was forced through at the President's Insistence).

—The Public Buildings Administrator (Peter Strobel) considered it all right to press Government claims on behalf of his former business firm just because he did it. "on his lunch hour."

—The Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission (Hugh W. Cross) interceded with railroad companies on behalf of a friend's company) which acquired the franchise for transfer of luggage and passengers among 8 Chicago stations.

—The General Services Administrator (Edward F. Mansure) was charged with favoritism in connection with a 63-operated nickel plant in Cuba, recommending that the $42,000 insurance contract be given to the GOP political chief who had helped him get his job.

The Republicans are not asking for bipartisanship in foreign policy. How can they do that and at the same time try to make political capital out of what was won by the bloodshed and heroism of fighting Americans?

It would be just as untrue and unfair if the Democrats were to claim that President Truman and the Democrats won World War II and stopped the shooting in Europe and the Pacific.

Everybody's glad the shooting is over in Korea, Let's have fair play and not drag politics into this.

POLITICS

Politics Is The Inescapable Process Through V

In this twentieth century world. In this twentieth century world, government has become more important than ever before—it touches all our lives every day. The sort of world in which you live, the kind of job you get, the education you receive, the extent of freedom and security you enjoy, are all vitally affected by government. And politics is the human activity which creates government. The from the politics is the human activity which creates government. activity which creates government. Try if you will, you can't escape politics. You may ignore it, but politics won't ignore you because taxes, roads, schools, housing, and the hydrogen bomb are all politi-cal problems.

The real question is. The real question is, are you willing to sit back and let others make these basic decisions which control your destiny? The individual who does is both foolish and irresponsible; foolish because he lets others run his life fir him; irresponsible because he refuses to accept the obligations and duties which a free society requires to accept the obligations and dut-ies which a free society requires of its citizens for the continued enjoyment of democratic rights and privileges. What is more, he is missing the stimulation, fun, and enjoyment that politics can hring.

Then there's the question:
What difference can one man make? Plenty! Even one vote is a powerful instrument. Many an election has hinged on that single

14. "U. S. WORLD PRESTIGE HIGHEST EVER"

GOP ARGUMENT: "Certainly the prestige of the United States since the last World War has never been as high as it is this day."

President Elisenhover, 6/1/56.

THE ANSWER Here's what the New York Times says:

"In the general feeling (in Washington) is that ... there has been a loss of confidence in American leadership." (4/15/56).

"Europeans are convinced that American foreign policy has lost much of the vision, resourcefulness, and flexibility that distinguished." "In the Arab wide and the rest of the Middle East ... the United States has unquestionably lost heavily in prestige and friendship in the last few years." (4/8/56).

"The United States is no longer counted a sure friend of nationalist movements ... Asians have lost trust." (4/10/56).

round for people who hold similar ideas to your own, people who are round for people who hold similar ideas to your own, people who are trying to get their ideas transla-ted into action, who are working out ways to carry their ideas to other people so that their numbers will grow. In short, you'll take your first close look at our political parties.

Why Join A Political Party? Why Join A Political Party?
The political party serves a vital function. In all true democracies government has developed along party lines. In America, as in other successful democracies, the two party system has proved most acceptable and effective.
Under our system, each party organizes and compromises the viewpoints and finds the areas of agreement of the vast numbers of citizens within its ranks. Parties citizens within its ranks. Parties citizens within its ranks. Farties crystallize opinion into two points of view so that after proper con-sideration and debate a majority sideration and debate a majority decision can be made effective. Parties also select candidates and limit polytical aspirants to a reasonable number for consideration by the electorate. Parties thus determine which issues will be presented and which candidates will be offered for your selection.

It follows that the man who Rt follows that the man who sancti-moniously takes pride in his "in-dependence" is in fact forfeiting a sizeable amount of his indepen-dence by being deprived of the a sizeable amount of his independence by being deprived of the privilege of helping determine candidates and issues in conventions and primaries. His final choices are limited by a process in which he has no part. The most independent individual is the person of independent judgment who son of independent judgment who takes part in the entire political process which includes full participation in the party of his choice. Parties are far from perfect—they are only as good as the people who make them up, and to the extent that you fail to participate, you are responsible for their imperfections.

founded by the great philosopher-statesman, Thomas Jefferson. It has been, throughout its history, a party of uncommon men, dedi-cated to the common man. Since Washington (the only non-party President we have had), the Dem-President we have had, the Deni-octatic Party has contributed most of the great and near-great Presidents in our history—Jeffer-son, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Polk, Cleveland, Wilson, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman.

The Democratic Party is the Party of the People, the Party of Innovation and the Party of Ideas because it has constantly striven to extend the benefits and privito extend the benefits and privi-leges of government to more and more of the people; it has reso-lutely refused to stand still, but has insisted on developing new has insisted on developing new ideas to meet new problems; and it has not hesitated to place men with great ideas in positions of power. Since the world is constantly changing, the policies of a great political party must also change, but the philosophy guiding those policies does not change. The policies does not change. The philosophy of the Democratic Party has been that of a truly national party devoted to the cause of 9i; Am-ricalar, regardless of their social status, religious preference, economic position or geographic location, and dedicated to the principle of equal privileges for all, special privileges for alme. special privileges for none.

Virginia Students Receive C&O Stock

Two Virginia students of busi-ness have each been made share-owners in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway through the award of two shares of C&O stock each, in an essay contest on "corporate democracy."

Donald F. Carson, (718 Lexington Ave.,) of Charlottesville, Ve., who is in the University of Virginia's Graduate School of Business, submitted an essay entitled "What The Balance Sheet Doesn't Show," and F. A. Howard, (1103 Halifax Street), Petersburg, Va., an undergraduate at the University of Richmond, turned in an essay entitled 'A View From The Sidelines."

Both were among 14 students from Virginia colleges and uni-versities invited by C&O to attend from Virginia colleges and universities invited by C&O to attend its annual meeting in Richmond, Va, in April as observers of "corporate democracy in action." Other students attending the meeting were Richard M. Johnston and George F. Milligan of Washington & Lee University, R. P. Hammond of University of Richmond, John K. Gill and Joe W. Himes of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, George N. Schramm of University of Virginia, Miss Barbara M. Craft and Miss Carol A. Striffinski of Mary Washington College of University of Virginia, Gerhard Otten and Glenn Oeschner of College of William & Mary, and Edward Heinz and Mitchell Easter of the Richmond Professional Institute of the College of William and Mary. Last year Miss Eleanor Jean Pratt of Arlington, Va., a student at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia, won two shares of C&O stock for her essay.
